CURRENT BYLAW

Article IV – Membership

1. CCUU shall maintain the Unitarian Universalist congregational tradition of granting to its members freedom of individual belief or conscience and shall impose no test of creed, race, color, sexual orientation, gender, rite, or ceremony as a condition of membership in this Church.

2. The membership of CCUU shall consist of all persons, 18 and over, who have signed the membership register; who are in general agreement with UUA principles, and who support CCUU by honoring a financial commitment.

3. All elected or Board-appointed positions, Church officers, Board members, and heads of committees mentioned in these By-Laws must be members of CCUU.

4. Any member may resign his/her membership with CCUU by filing a written resignation with the Senior Minister.

5. Any member who fails to comply with CCUU’s financial support and/or other requirements may be removed by the Board from membership. Any member so removed shall be notified in writing, at his/her last known address, with the reason(s) for removal stated.

6. The Board of Trustees may make an exception to the financial obligations of membership as stipulated in these By-Laws.

NEW APPROVED BYLAW APPROVED BY BOARD 4.17.19

Article IV – Membership

1. CCUU shall maintain the Unitarian Universalist congregational tradition of granting to its members freedom of individual belief or conscience and shall impose no test of creed, race, color, sexual orientation, gender, rite, or ceremony as a condition of membership in this Church.

2. The membership of CCUU shall consist of all persons who have signed the membership register; who are in general agreement with UUA principles; who support CCUU by honoring a financial commitment; and:
   a. Have completed the congregation’s Coming of Age program, or
   b. Have completed an equivalent Coming of Age program at another congregation (as determined by the DRE/Minister), or
   c. Be at least 16 years old and have completed the congregation’s pathway to membership class or the equivalent in another UU congregation.
3. All elected or Board-appointed positions, Church officers, Board members, and heads of committees mentioned in these By-Laws must be members of CCUU.

4. Any member may resign his/her membership with CCUU by filing a written resignation with the Senior Minister.

5. Any member who fails to comply with CCUU’s financial support and/or other requirements may be removed by the Board from membership. Any member so removed shall be notified in writing, at his/her last known address, with the reason(s) for removal stated.

6. The Board of Trustees may make an exception to the financial obligations of membership as stipulated in these By-Laws.